"BIG OFFER" FOR ATHLETIC PARK WAS ONLY $25 FOR EACH SUNDAY

Manager Thomas Treadway threw some light yesterday on the personnel of the mysterious hul, which, according to the morning paper will take over the management of the Athletic Park. It is headed by the Hon. Charles F. Chillingworth and A. Q. Marcellino, the latter doing the bargaining.

Speaking of the matter Treadway said: "There was an offer made but that is where it all started and ended. A. Q. Marcellino came to me from Charley Chillingworth and offered me as manager of the park $25 a Sunday for the use of it. Chillingworth himself had not the courage to come and make me the offer to my face."

"The plan was that the park should be run under the management of Chil-lingworth and he calculated that if matters were carried on this way the Japanese would lift the present boycott. I refused straight away and told them that if they felt inclined to come through with $100 I might think about it."

"You can see for yourself how the figures would work out. At the present time we are paying $130 a month ground rent and all they offered me was $100, so that I should be losing $30 on the deal. During the first series the share that came to the park averaged $135 every Sunday. Since the boycott it has fallen to $115. And this is what they offered me $25 for."

"No, if they are willing to come through with a decent sum I might think of it but under those circumstances it is only foolish for them to think that I would."

MANAGEMENT NOT KONA CREW CAUSE OF BOYCOTT NOT COMING

Park People Will Not Consider Proposition—No Chance of League to Run Park

It has been claimed by a few that if the present park management would sell out or rent the Athletic Park to the Oahu League, the Japanese fans would turn out in thousands to see the games, but would not life the boycott if the present management takes charge of things.

The present park management has done more for the benefit of the Oahu League than any other management that has had charge of the park.
Thomas Treadway is at the head of it and he is a pure and simply clean sport. There is no crookedness in him. He is doing all he can for the boys and must of them know it too.

The idea of the Oahu League running the park on a $25 per Sunday rate is not to be considered by the present park management. If the Oahu League came through with a noise like $75 or $100 they would consider the matter, but as it is now there is nothing doing.

The Park management is not to be blamed for the boycott at all. They have done their share on the square, improved the park to its condition today. The boys have bath rooms and the ground is in excellent condition, which would never have been done under another management.

An attempt has been made to withdraw the Japanese team from the Oahu League but has met with no success.

The "Opposition League," which pulls off its games at Ala Park on Sundays now, is drawing the Japanese fans away from Athletic Park.
Not because they play very good ball but as most of the fans are tired of seeing the Oahu League series and are out to see some other teams play.

If the Oahu League cuts its present series in two and finish it up soon, then let the new proposed league start its series, it would stir a new life in the ball fans. The whole thing is now that the fans are getting tired of seeing the Oahu League games.

JAPANESE ARCHERS WILL HOLD CONTEST

In the presence of the Japanese Consul-General, S. Uyeno, expert Japanese archers will hold their annual contest next Sunday afternoon at the grounds of the Japanese Bud-hist High school on Fort street above School street. The occasion, which is looked forward to with a great deal of interest by the local Japanese, will attract a large number of the plantation laborers in town.

Among those who are considered expert archers are Dr. T. Uemura, E. Wada, cashier of the Yokohama Specie Bank, G. Nakamura of the Bishop Bank and a few others. The contest will begin at 1 o'clock.

There was an important meeting held by the Myrtle Boat club last night, at which time many important matters were brought up concerning Regatta Day. The meeting turned out to be a hot one as matters concerning the clubs were brought up.

The Hawaii Yacht Club meeting will be held this evening at 7:45. Matters of importance will be brought up. The meeting should have been held last night but was postponed on account of the Myrtle Club meeting.

ANYONE'S GAME TOMORROW

Cavalry and Oahu Size Up Even; Honors Will Go to the Luckiest.

The polo field at Moanalua was badly cut up last Saturday as the two teams tore around rushing and smashing at one another, and there was worriment amongst tomorrow's contestants as to whether the field could be put into a condition equal to sustain the harsh treatment it will receive when he great last game of the tournament is fought.

The field was so full of holes, accurate ball driving was almost impossible, and the horses were in danger of taking some nasty falls, but that has all been done away with and Oahu and the Cavalry will clash upon grounds perfect in condition.

A gang of men has been busy all week filling in holes, leveling off bumps and packing the ground down firm, with a heavy road roller in such a manner the sharpest hoofed ponies will have a hard time to make even an impression.

The Cavalry boys have remained encamped in Moanalua and put in good effective practice during the week, strengthening their weak points, so that they can put a team onto the field tomorrow equal to any emergency and give Oahu the game of their lives. The fifth horsemen are going into the thick of battle to come out again victorious. The fight tomorrow promises to be the closest, fastest and most spectacular of any this season.
Neither will give ground and back up from the terrible onslaught that will rage in all its fury from the time the gong rings to start to the time it will tell the death march for the vanquished at the end.

Oahu have done very little practice this week; the team feels fine and wants to remain so, and did not want to take a chance of going stale, due to too much practice and hard work.

The physical condition of the home boys has been perfect and allowed them to emerge from the hard, gruelling preat without even being winded.
At the end of every game that could have played on for hours more and not have felt tired. The ponies also are in the pink of condition and will treat the fans, motoring to Moanalua tomorrow, to some of the fastest running ever gazed upon. The Cavalry mounts stack up fine and will be equal to keep nose to nose with any of Oahu's fleetest.

Everyone realizes how close the contest will be and the air is full of nothing but polo talk, varying greatly in nature. Kaula claims Oahu will have to put up a harder game than they did against them if they have hopes to bring the bacon home. One man will say the Cavalry will blow Oahu clean off the earth, and another will say, What Oahu will do to the Cavalry will be too horrible for type. Before long around these two countless men have gathered and the argument waxes warm, each praising the points of their ideals.

But at 4:30 tomorrow afternoon there will be no chance for argument, everyone will be too busy trying to tell anyone rubbing elbows with him what a great, wonderful game it was and how exciting.

The teams meet as follows: Oahu—Harold Dillingham, 1; Harold Castle, 2; Walter Dillingham, 3; Robert Atkinson, 4.
Cavalry—Lieut. P. H. Sheridan, 1; Lieut. Arthur Hanson, 2; Capt. Wm. D.
Forsyth, 3; Lieut. J. G. Quekemeyer, 4.
